THE TRINITY IS LOVE

Theologians throughout the Christian centuries have spilled much ink (and, on occasion, some blood) in describing and defining the mystery of the Holy Trinity. One of the earliest, most poetic, and beautiful descriptions comes from St. Augustine in De Trinitas, wherein he describes the Trinity as One (the Father) who loves, One (the Son) who is loved, and One (the Spirit) who is love. And these three Ones are also one Three.

It might be wisest for us to leave the technical wranglings to the academic theologians, and focus on the fact that the three Persons of the Trinity are indeed persons; they are best known and understood in their love for each other and for us. We are made in the image of those loving persons, and our best relationships are lived out in the context of love. Truly loving relationships are inexhaustible mysteries to be lived in joy. If this is true of our human relationships, how much more so is it true of our relationship with the Trinity. And how much more does it call upon us to be joyful, loving witnesses of the holy mystery of the One in Three. This is the mystery to which we were called when we were chosen to be God's own, baptized with water in the name of the Holy Trinity.

LA TRINIDAD DE AMOR

Una de las más antiguas, más poéticas y más hermosas descripciones de la Santísima Trinidad se halla en el libro De Trinitate, por san Agustín. Allí, el santo describe a la Trinidad como Uno que ama (el Padre), Uno que es amado (el Hijo) y Uno que es el amor (el Espíritu Santo). Y esos tres Unos suman Uno solo.

Tal vez lo mejor para nosotros sea dejar las dificultades técnicas de este misterio a los teólogos profesionales, y enfocarnos en el hecho que las tres Personas de la Santísima Trinidad son precisamente personas; se les conoce y se les comprende en su amor mutuo y en su amor hacia nosotros. Hemos sido creados a imagen y semejanza de esas tres Personas amorosas, y nuestras mejores relaciones se viven en el contexto del amor. Las relaciones verdaderamente amorosas son misterios inagotables que se expresan en una profunda felicidad. Y si esto es así en nuestras relaciones humanas, ¡cuánto más lo será en nuestra relación con la Santísima Trinidad! Y, ¡cuánto más somos llamados a dar un testimonio alegre y amoroso de este sagrado misterio de los Tres que son Uno! Este es el misterio que fuimos llamados a vivir cuando fuimos escogidos como hijos de Dios, bautizados en el nombre del Padre, del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo.

PRAYER SERVICE

BENEDICTION

in the Church

from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM

Benediction is a beautiful word. It means a blessing, a greeting, an expression of kindness and love. Benediction is also a beautiful service of the church. It is a service that makes real to us in an impressive way the fact that God is always reaching out to us, to bless, to strengthen, to assure us of his loving kindness toward us. Please come and pray with us.

NEW LECTORS AND EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED

Are you being called to ministry?

Do you have the gifts to share with the community as a Lector or Eucharistic Minister?

Saint Paul reminded the Corinthian Church that the Lord gave them their spiritual gifts for the purpose of helping each other, for serving each other in community and in so doing, serving Him.

We become community at our regular Eucharistic celebrations.

Being a Minister of the Word or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion is a wonderful way to serve each other.

We invite men and women of at least high school age to consider joining one or both of these ministries. There will be training classes and lots of chances to practice over the next couple of months right here at the parish.

Please take the time to think and pray to see if you are called to serve.

Please contact the rectory if you are interested or if you have questions or need further information. Be sure to leave your phone number or email address so someone can get back to you.

Prayers for the Sick

When someone calls in a name of person who is ill, that person is prayed for at all the Masses the following week-end. The name is put into the bulletin for three weeks. If you would like to have the name in the bulletin for additional weeks, please let us know that. If the person is chronically ill you may also request that the name be listed with the Community of Prayer. Each day four names are taken from the list and are prayed for at daily mass. The community of prayer consists of approximately 60 people who have committed themselves to pray for the sick of the parish each day. So even if you do not hear the name of the person at Sunday Mass, please know this person is being prayed for daily by many people.
